

BUSINESS MEN WIN VOLLEY BALL GAME.

The Business Men's Volley Ball team, composed of Dr. D. S. Henry, Lewis Meglone, Thos. Smith and Wm. Bryan defeated the Professional Men's team, composed of Dr. Harry Mathers, Prof. E. T. Proctor, D. D. Cline and Prof. Chas. White, in a game played Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The score at the end of the game stood 3 to 1 in favor of the Business Men's team.

The last of the series will be played next Monday night. As this will be the deciding set of the series, fur will surely fly. Both sides are confident of winning. For any information as to who the winner will be, ask "Buddy" Mathers and "Bill" Bryan. If you want to see "some" exciting games of Volley Ball be on hand Monday night with your "holer" working and "root" for your favorite. The games will be called at 7:15. When the whistle blows for the finals, the line-up will be as follows.

Professional Men—Mathers, Cline, Proctor and White.

Business Men—Bryan, Henry, Meglone and Smith.

Official—Referee, C. O. Hinton; Linemen, McCord and Wilcox; Scorekeeper, Rice.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Mr. Tolliver Young has purchased of Mr. Charles C. Clarke, one hundred and fifty acres of the J. Hal Woodford farm, on the North Middletown pike, which recently passed to the ownership of Mr. Clarke. The price paid was not stated.

Mr. H. S. Caywood purchased undivided one-half interest of his partner, Mr. Isaac Reynolds, in the Tracey place, adjoining Mr. E. K. Thomas' farm, near North Middletown, at a private price. Mr. Caywood later sold the farm, containing 170 acres, to Mr. Edward Simms, of Houston, Texas, who will add it to his fine country estate, "Xalapa," on the North Middletown and Paris pike. The purchase price was not made public. This now gives Mr. Simms an estate equal to the famous Elmdorf, Lexington's show place.

Mr. W. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, and Mr. Hal Price Headley, of Lexington, have purchased 863 acres of the Elmdorf farm from the Jas. B. Haggin estate. This land lies on both sides of the Maysville pike, about one mile north of the Elmdorf Dairy plant. It was previously known as the Kerr and Harp farms. Messrs. McIntyre and Kerr purchased the land with a view of subdividing it into smaller farms and selling on easy terms to men who will cultivate them. The price paid for the land was not made public.

CLUB MEETINGS.

The Progress Culture Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank O'Neill, on High street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program was rendered. A report was given of the proceedings of the State Federation of Clubs held at Fulton, in June. Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, Mrs. Frederick Wallis and Mrs. J. T. Vansant discussed the work of the Red Cross. In a most interesting way Mrs. Catesby Woodford told of letters from a young American soldier in France to his chum, telling of the life "over there." Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland also addressed the members of the Club on the subject of "Food Conservation," and the scope of the work required by the Women's Branch of the National Council of Defense. Mrs. J. T. Vansant gave an interesting account of the graduating exercises of the Nurses' class at the Massie Memorial Hospital held last Friday night.

The Paris Literary Club met at the same hour at the home of Misses Lottie and Winnie Williams, on Pleasant street. A club program of unusual interest was presented, participated in by members of the organization.

The North Middletown Woman's Club has resumed its regular meetings, after the summer vacation. The topic chosen for discussion is "Geography," which promises to furnish the members with a great deal to do during the coming winter. At the last meeting the Club was favored with an address on "Kentucky" by Mrs. W. T. Lafferty, of Lexington.

B-4 FIRE INSURE WITH W.O. HINTON & SON, AGTS

BIG FIRE IN CINCINNATI ELECTRICAL CONCERN.

A fire of unknown origin damaged the big plant of the Post-Glover Electric Company, on Fourth street, in Cincinnati, early Wednesday morning, to the extent of $300,000. The loss is covered by insurance, according to statements made to the officials by officials of the Company.

Damage to the building, which is owned by the Fleischmanns, is estimated at $15,000. Investigations developed the fact that the fire originated in the sixth floor of the building. The fire is believed by the police and firemen to have been of incendiary origin. Great interest centers in the investigations which is to be continued from the fact that the concern was engaged in working on a big Government contract for electrical supplies.

The fire was in the immediate neighborhood of where former Paris people, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Shackleford, reside. The Lombardy Flats near them, was damaged by smoke and water, but untouched by the fire.
